The Chamber

For a ceremony that balances timeless elegance with modern charm, the Council Chamber is a delightful choice. Dating back to 1871, this historic room is rich in character and offers a truly unique setting to exchange your vows. With space for up to 50 guests, the Chamber creates a welcoming and distinguished atmosphere where you can celebrate surrounded by loved ones. Its blend of heritage and contemporary style ensures a memorable experience for everyone present.

The Mayor's Parlour

For a more intimate and informal ceremony, the Mayor's Parlour is the perfect setting. Warm and inviting, this charming space accommodates up to 18 guests, making it ideal for couples who want to share their special moment with their closest family and friends. Its refined finish and tasteful details create the perfect backdrop for a personal and heartfelt celebration.

Saxon Hall

For couples planning a seamless transition from vows to a vibrant wedding reception, Saxon Hall is available to hire right next door. Located within the Town Hall grounds, it can host up to 198 guests, offering the perfect space to relax before your wedding and celebrate long after the ceremony. Saxon Hall features a terrace area overlooking the gardens, providing a pleasant outdoor space for guests to enjoy some fresh air and socialise. We supply tables and chairs, and our experienced operations staff will be on hand to assist with all your logistical needs.

Optional Finishing Touches

To add those perfect finishing touches, we offer elegant options for your ceremony in the Chamber or the Mayor's Parlour. We can dress the chairs in classic white fabric, with a range of colour sash options to perfectly match your wedding theme.

After you exchange your vows in this refined setting you can then raise a glass and savour delicious canapés in the charming Mayor's Parlour and Town Hall gardens.
